

Look Great and Do Good:

Two Doctors Share Life-Changing Tools

Dr. Nancy O'Reilly invites you to Happy Hour at Four Seasons Resort The Biltmore in Santa Barbara

From 4:30 pm – 6:30 pm

Saturday, February 6, 2016

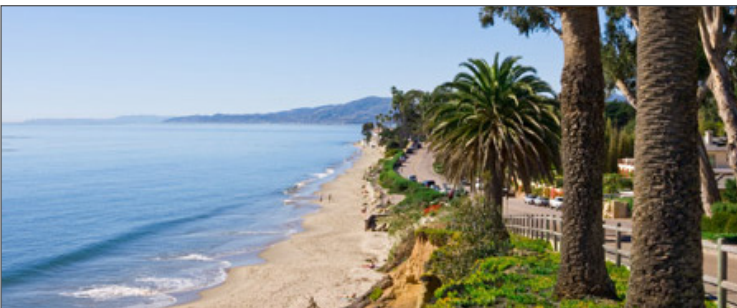

LaMarina Room

Enhance self-confidence and look as good as you feel. Dermatologist Glynis Ablon, MD, F.A.A.D., tells you how to achieve a younger, more vivacious version of yourself. Hear about her personal experience and cutting-edge research in de-stressing your skin.

Discover the exciting new women-helping-women movement that's propelling women into leadership worldwide. Through her lifelong mission of empowering others, Nancy D. O'Reilly, Psy.D. shows how women are parlaying their natural talents into top leadership positions.

Seating is limited.

RSVP to reserve your space.

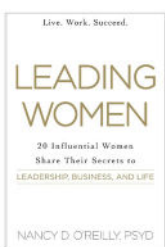

Click here jen@drnancyoreilly.net

by Jan. 30, 2016 or phone 805-705-8576.

www.fourseasons.com/santabarbara/destination/directions_and_maps

Dr. Ablon's bestseller includes research data from Ablon Institute studies and patient stories. Learn to counteract the skin damage inflicted by stress and other life influences.

Dr. O'Reilly's anthology of advice and stories from 20 successful women is an outstanding life manual and perfect gift for women seeking to become leaders in business and life.

BIOS

Dr. Ablon is a board certified dermatologist and founder of Ablon Skin Institute Research Center. www.abloninstitute.com She is an on-camera medical consultant for The Doctors Show, E! Entertainment, ABC, CBS, KCAL and Lifetime. She is an Associate Clinical Professor at UCLA, practicing at UCLA and Lake County Memorial Hospital.

Dr. O'Reilly is a clinical psychologist, motivational speaker and women empowerment expert. O'Reilly helps women create the satisfying and purposeful lives they want to benefit themselves, their families and their communities through her work and her 501©3 Women Wonnnect4Good, Inc. <http://www.drnancyoreilly.com>

Signed copies of both books available during the reception.